PRESIDENTS MESSAGE

By Randy Robertson for Jill Gill

Rumor has it Jim is out volunteering and subsequently making the world a better place.

Great leadership by example!

Hope to see him on Sunday at the Chili Cook off, in the interim I know he wishes all well at the weekend's GoodGuys show.

Based on information from Helen it appears that 14 member cars will display on Friday, 18 on Saturday, and 11 on Sunday. Hope the weather holds off. Come on out and support our Club.

Let me again emphasize my first sentence and point out an excerpt from Jim's March message in red below.

"The second point I make is volunteerism. This is what makes our club exemplary."

As Reported by Dan Fuccella

Recently, I was contacted by Michelle Moore who now works at Bartlett Reserve Retirement Community in south Durham. She is inviting us to bring a few of our antique vehicles to their location, 300 Meredith Drive, (near the intersection of NC 54 and NC 55) in Durham. She is thinking of holding the car display on Friday, April 28, 2023, from noon until 3pm. Those of you who have attended similar retirement community events in our area know how special these displays are to the residents. This is a great way to give back to our elderly community.

If you wish to participate in this event, please let Dan know by March 29th so that arrangements can be finalized. Thank you!

UPDATE on 03-30-2023

Hi Triangle Chapter Members,

Thank you to the folks who have already responded to the invitation to display your vehicles at the upcoming Festival at Bartlett Reserve Retirement Community in Durham.

Thus far, the following individuals are planning to participate:

Dudley Morrison: 1982 Volvo Estate Wagon

Brian Winger: 1957 Ford Thunderbird

Herbert Tull & Elissa Brody: 1929 Pierce

Dan Fuccella: 1950 Willys Jeep Station Wagon

Bartlett Reserve is planning on making this a large affair, with community events, food and games. Antique car participants will be provided with a free lunch from one of the several food trucks planned to be on site.

We are hoping that several more of our members will bring their cars out for this occasion. It will be a great opportunity to "stretch our legs" while bringing fond memories to Bartlett Reserve's senior residents. Please consider participating. Let me know if you plan to attend, and what vehicle you plan to bring along.

Event details:

Date: Friday, April 28, 2023

Time: Noon to 3pm

Location: Bartlett Reserve, Retirement Community

300 Meredith Drive

Durham, NC

(near the intersection of NC 54 & NC 55 in southern Durham)

Thank you! Hope to hear from you!

Folks:
As Ed Sullivan used to say, we really have a big show for you tonight. Yes, this GREAT car show is turning into a really big show. So, mark your calendars & get the word out.
Last year we had 223 registered vehicles. Our goal is to achieve 264 registered vehicles this year. All proceeds go to The Optimist Club of Wake Forest to bring out the best in kids.

As this car show grows in popularity, my personal goal is to achieve 300 registered vehicles. When that happens, we will definitely have the Kars For Kids Charity Car Show on the map. (it is now). So come on out & enjoy a great day of fun & fellowship.

Happy motoring.

Continuing Ed on Carburetors

As reported by Dean Tryon

Float testing

A friend and I have been working on a 1938 Buick recently for the owner who is overseas. It had been running well for many months when suddenly it began to flood severely. The immediate thought was it was dirt in the needle seat, a bad float, or possibly the float was binding on the hinge pin or the float was hitting the sides of the float bowl. So we removed the air horn (with the carburetor on the car) to investigate.

Everything looked OK initially, the floats looked OK but we noticed that one of the two had been repaired with solder. But then it was obvious that the repaired one had fuel inside. Not a good sound. Fortunately, new floats are available and I was not willing to try to fix the old one. The failure mode is too great.

But, I did want to understand it further. Step 1 was to put the float in water to see if it floats. A “yes” and “no” answer. The photo on the left shows the good float floating as it should, the bad float was mostly sunk.

Step 2 was to see if I could repair the bad float (but still not risk using it again). I drilled a small hole in the side, shook and shook it until the fuel was out. Then, using an electrical soldering gun, I was able to move the existing solder to seal up the hole. I expected the float to float better but thought the solder would be significant. Amazing result – See photo on the right. The repaired float in back floated as it should. The solder was not as significant as I suspected. The new float is in front (obviously.)

You can do this test with any float – single or dual like this one. A typical float in water will be roughly  $\frac{1}{2}$  -  $\frac{2}{3}$  above the water. That will depend a bit on whether it has the metal float arm on it of course. The photo below shows a variety of floats in water. The 4 cork floats are on the right with the white one having a sealer on it. The brass round float, the center nitrophenyl and the
