PRESIDENTS MESSAGE

By Jim Gill

Happy New Year fellow club members. It is time to restart our batteries and get this new year off to a rousing start. We should have an exciting year taking on new responsibilities with the Spring Region Meet this spring. But for right now we will concentrate on this month as we not only have our first of the year club meeting at a new location but we also have the Spring Region Board meeting and General Region meeting right here in Raleigh. The Backyard Bistro has welcomed us to use there meeting room which will accommodate sixty guests. So, there is your first challenge; lets see if we can fill it up and show support to their personnel.

This past half month centered around recovery from the holidays. In my case it was removing thirteen sets of lights, one hundred thirty-five 3M Command strips and twenty-four light clips from all three Model T.s which occupied the front yard the past month and one half. For those that have not used the Command strips as light holders I can attest they work fabulous without paint damage to the vehicles. All three vehicles started immediately and moved into the garage until show time.

Final note is a note of “thanks “to Mike Hess as he closed out his presidency what I would call a tumultuous tenure. Gets elected and immediately gets shut down by Covid explosion for a couple of years and then health concerns the third year. The good news, he survived and will continue being a member of our club Board.

See you on this next Sunday at 3:00pm at our club meeting.

EDITOR’S OBSERVATIONS AND NOTES RANDY’S RANTS

By Randy N Robertson

1. With Holidays behind, I hope all staying warm and dreaming of Spring to come.
2. I saw a few flakes this morning to remind me despite the recent fair weather it is still January
3. This newsletter and the coming issues will be getting a fresh look. I have invested in Publisher, although I am just learning the software, I expect to hopefully provide cool things. Patience please!.
4. I have the two slowest things in the world are NCDMV & the time to my retirement. Hopefully I will get my title to the '53 in 23 and progress to my “Act II”.
5. As always, thanks for the responses, suggestions, pictures and articles.
6. Please contact me with anything you want published. rnewr2017@gmail.com

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS , ANNOUNCEMENTS AND THANK YOU'S

As reported by Kimberley Hess

Stuff your pockets, fill your wallet and load your purses! Our program for January is going to be an "in your seat" SCAVENGER HUNT!

Each table will get a list of common and unusual items, and a few automotive items thrown in for good measure. Using your wallet, purse, or pockets you will check off what you have. The table with the most points will win a prize!

Similar to what Monty Hall used to ask for in Let's Make a Deal (who carries around a hard-boiled egg with them) this will be lots of fun, and even a little bit of competitive spirit between tables.

Want a hint.....be sure someone at your table has a postage stamp! You just got one point!

In addition, if you haven't put away your ugly sweater yet, feel free to wear it to the meeting.

As reported by Randy N Robertson

I got a nice note back from Frank Taff with the Walnut St. Fire Station in Madison Indiana.

Frank wrote:

"Thank you for the newsletter and mention with the info. It was a pleasure to have a knowledgeable person as yourself to see and enjoy the collection. We have been around the boat tour people for some time but just now got to converse with the groups of seniors having such a good time and we have decided to do a cruise in 2023. Can't let you have all the fun.

We are always ready to entertain anytime you or your friends might find Madison."

As Reported by Courtney Johnston

My Confederate unit will be conducting a Living History at Bentonville on March 18th & 19th, 2023

A Living History has no battle reenactments with opposed fire. Instead, we drill, shoot and show camp life.

I'll be there, so hope to see you.

Congratulations to the Sue and Fred Harley on their recent move to Cary NC.

TIP OF THE MONTH

DON'T FORGET TO LABEL THOSE PARTS AS YOU DISASSEMBLE

We can all use a little help around the garage or shop!

Here is another opportunity to get your name in print.

Send me those tips!

Keeping small parts in storage bags labeled with permanent markers is one of the best ways to stay organized during big projects. You'll know exactly where to find your hardware when you need it.

It's a good call to keep a variety of bag sizes on hand. This lets you store items of all shapes and sizes, from small screws to brake spindles.

Pro Tip: Permanent marker ink doesn't always stick well to storage bags. Instead of writing directly on the bags, write on a strip of masking tape and put that on the bag instead.

All, Attached is the Sponsorship packet. It consists of:

Cover letter

Sponsorship form

Map of all chapter in NC Region (green are Regions, Blue are Chapters)

I am asking that each club member try and solicit a sponsor at the Silver or Gold Level.

Let's think outside the box. The sponsors do not have to be Car related.

Do you have a favorite coffee shop? ASK! Do you have a favorite restaurant? ASK!

Do you belong to a gym? ASK! Big box store? ASK!

I have prepared a spreadsheet that will track which companies are being solicited. We don't want to have several people ask the same retailers. Note Joe Parson and Warren Daniels are going to solicit the same companies that were present at the 2022 Triangle chapter show. If you are unsure send me an email: hdinnc@gmail.com.

YOU MIGHT BE DRIVING A JUNKER PART 2

As reported by Mike Petersen

If someone wants to buy your car for use in a demolition derby you might be driving a Junker.

If you stop and open the door to let wild life exit you might be driving a Junker.

If heel and toe driving means you step on the gas pedal with your heel and lift the gas pedal back up with your toe you might be driving a Junker.

If you avoid the automatic car wash because it will also wash you and the interior you might be driving a Junker.

If you disconnect the warning lights you might be driving a Junker.

If the cigar lighter is an eternal flame you might be driving a Junker.

If the starting procedure involves holding your breath, making a special face, and watching the sweep hand of your watch you might be driving a Junker.

If you carry a towel to smother a carburetor fire you might be driving a Junker.

If your kids would rather ride the bus than be driven to school you might be driving a Junker.

If you leave the repair shop written instructions with "DO NOT TOUCH" for various controls you might be driving a Junker.

If your parking space at home is marked by tall grass around a rectangle of dead grass you might be driving a Junker.

If your car looks like a destroyer laying down a smoke screen you might be driving a Junker.

If you use an old license plate for a patch panel you might be driving a Junker.

If your car is in the evening news story about the tornado that hit two counties away you might be driving a Junker.

If the front seat back is propped up by the bumper jack you might be driving a Junker.

If your car has flow through ventilation but did not have it when new you might be driving a Junker.

If you remove the headliner so you can see out the rear window you might be driving a Junker.
